

Since Indiana's Attorney General has enforced the Indiana Telephone Privacy law I have enjoyed relief from numerous unwanted calls. Even though I can just hang up on unwanted callers, my upbringing tells me I should be polite telemarketers which leads to frustration that I should not have to experience. My home is invaded by unwanted calls. Please preserve our State's right to determine our own rules by upholding our Indiana Telephone Privacy law.